STAFF USE OF CELL PHONES

No staff member employed by the board of education may use non-district issued cell phones during the performance of their assigned duties or during the operation of district equipment or vehicles.

This policy does not prohibit the use of personal cell phones in emergencies or in the conduct of school business. When there is a question of what constitutes an emergency, the employee should consult with their supervisor.

“USE” shall be defined for the purposes of this policy as having or placing the device in the “ON” position.
